

Effect of the treatment on the primary outcome

We found that the treatment reduced the primary outcome ($p = 0.031$, $n = 200$). Adverse events were monitored for 30 days. The effect was smaller in the pre-registered subgroup.

Table 2 reports $n = 147$ for the treatment group.